

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
ATLANTA DIVISION

SHENZHEN DAISILI
COMMERCIAL CO., LTD.,

Plaintiff,

v.

ACHIFSJOVT, et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No.
25-cv-4733-MLB

Preliminary Injunction Order

THIS CAUSE being before the Court on Plaintiff's request to convert the temporary restraining order into a preliminary injunction against the defendants identified in the Complaint (the "Defendants") and using at least the online marketplace accounts identified in Exhibit A hereto (the "Defendant Online Stores"), and this Court having heard the evidence before it hereby grants Plaintiff's Motion in its entirety.

The Court previously entered a temporary restraining order (TRO) against all Defendants on August 26, 2025 [Dkt. 11] and authorized Plaintiff to serve Defendants by electronic means [Dkt. 12]. In conjunction with the TRO, the Court ordered defendants to appear at a hearing to show good cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue. That hearing was continued to and went forward on September 23, 2025 at 10:00am EST.

Despite having been electronically served with process and given notice of the hearing, the Defendants did not appear. As a result, the Defendants have failed to show good cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue. The Court finds that Plaintiff has established the following:

1. It has a substantial likelihood of success on the merits of its copyright infringement claims given that
  - a. it owns valid and enforceable federal copyright registrations for the Plaintiff Works; and
  - b. Defendants have, without Plaintiff's authorization, reproduced and displayed the Plaintiff Works in association with their offer for sale of products.
2. It will suffer irreparable harm if the injunction does not issue.
3. The balance of harms weighs in favor of granting the injunction given the threatened injury to Plaintiff's exclusive rights in and to the Plaintiff Work outweighs any potential financial harm that the Defendants may suffer as a result of the injunction.

4. The requested injunction is in the interest of upholding copyright protections, and this is in the public's interest.

Plaintiff has established that a preliminary injunction is warranted, and the Defendants have failed to show good cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue. Plaintiff's request for a preliminary injunction is accordingly GRANTED as to the Defendants listed in Exhibit A, as follows:

1. For the duration of this action, each Defendant and its affiliates, officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, confederates, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with Defendant having notice of this Order is hereby ORDERED to cease and refrain from:

a. reproducing, distributing copies of, making derivative works of, or publicly displaying the Plaintiff Works in any manner without the express authorization of Plaintiff; and

b. manufacturing, shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured or authorized by or for Plaintiff and which bear any of the Plaintiff Works.

2. For the duration of this action, each Defendant must preserve all documents and electronically stored information arising from or related to its sale, offer for sale, distribution, and advertising, incorporating the Plaintiff Works or components thereof, of products through its online storefronts located on Amazon.com or elsewhere.
3. For the duration of this action, all Third-Party Providers<sup>1</sup> which receive notice of this Order shall continue to attach and freeze all funds in any account(s) owned, controlled, utilized by, or associated with the Defendants and otherwise prohibit the transfer of any funds out of any such accounts. No funds restrained by this Order shall be transferred or surrendered by any Third-Party Provider for any

<sup>1</sup> “Third-Party Providers” is defined as “any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for any of the Defendants, or in connection with any of the Defendant Online Stores or other online marketplace accounts operated by Defendants, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as Amazon, eBay, web hosts, sponsored search engine or ad-word providers, credit cards, banks, merchant account providers, third party processors and other payment processing service providers such as PayPal and Amazon Payments, and Internet search engines such as Google, Bing and Yahoo” in the Court’s August 26, 2025 TRO [Dkt. 11].

purpose (other than pursuant to a chargeback made pursuant to their security interest in the funds) without the express authorization of the Court.

4. Defendants and Third-Party Providers that receive notice of this Order shall, within five (5) business days after receipt of such notice, provide to Plaintiff expedited discovery, including copies of all documents and records in such person's or entity's possession or control relating to:

- a. the identities and locations of Defendants, their agents, servants, employees, confederates, attorneys, and any persons acting in concert or participation with them, including all known contact information, including any and all associated e-mail addresses;
- b. the nature of Defendants' operations and all associated sales, methods of payment for services and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Defendant Online Stores and Defendants' financial accounts, as well as providing a full accounting of Defendants'

sales and listing history related to their respective Defendant Online Stores;

c. any other online marketplace accounts registered by Defendants; and

d. any financial accounts owned or controlled by Defendants, including their agents, servants, employees, confederates, attorneys, and any persons acting in concert or participation with them, including such accounts residing with or under the control of any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, PayPal and Amazon Pay, or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA).

5. Plaintiff may notify Third-Party Providers of this Order by electronic means, including email.

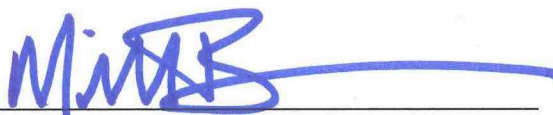

6. This Order shall remain in effect for the duration of this action and until such time as a final judgment is entered.

7. Pursuant to this Court's discretion, Plaintiff shall not presently be required to post a bond or other security. BellSouth

Telecommunications, Inc. v. MCIMetro Access Transmission Servs., LLC, 425 F.3d 964, 971 (11th Cir. 2005). However, any Defendant may appear and immediately challenge this portion of the Order by providing the Court with a reasonable estimation of its potential lost sales, along with supporting documentation sufficient to allow the Court to decide what an appropriate amount of surety would be. Plaintiff will then have two (2) weeks in which to file a response.

8. The Court's TRO [Dkt. 11] is dissolved as to the Defendants and is replaced by this preliminary injunction order which is hereafter in effect.

SO ORDERED this 24th day of September, 2025.
