

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

Shenzhen Mahihaoduo Trading Co. Ltd.,

Plaintiff,

v.

John Doe,

Defendants.

Case No. 25-cv-4242

Judge Sunil R. Harjani

Order

THIS CAUSE being before the Court on Plaintiff Shenzhen Mahihaoduo Trading Co. Ltd. (“Plaintiff”) Second Motion for Expedited Discovery [25] against defendant BLARKRUSLI (the “Defendant”), and this Court having heard the evidence before it hereby GRANTS Plaintiff’s Motion as follows. This Court finds that it has personal jurisdiction over Defendant since Defendant directly targets its business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois and offers to sell and ship products into this Judicial District and has sold and shipped at least some products into Illinois. Specifically, Defendant is reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive online stores through which Illinois residents can purchase products under the Plaintiff Mark. This Court also finds that issuing this Order without notice pursuant to Rule 26(d)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is appropriate because Plaintiff has presented specific facts in support of the Motion clearly showing that Plaintiff will be otherwise unable to properly serve Defendant without the requested leave. Accordingly, the Court ORDERS that:

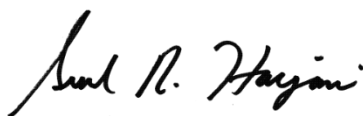

1. Upon Plaintiff’s request, Defendant and any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for Defendant, or in connection with Defendant’s Walmart or other online marketplace accounts operated by Defendant, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as AliBaba, AliExpress, Amazon, DHGate, eBay, Wish, Joom, Vova, Walmart, web hosts, sponsored search engine or ad-word providers, credit cards, banks, merchant account providers, third party processors and other payment processing service providers such as PayPal, AliPay, Payoneer, Skrill, Ping Pong, and Amazon Payments, and Internet search engines such as Google, Bing and Yahoo (collectively, the “Third-Party Providers”) shall, within seven (7) business days after receipt of such notice, provide to Plaintiff expedited discovery, including copies of all documents and records in such person’s or entity’s possession or control relating to:

- a. the identities and locations of Defendant, its agents, servants, employees, confederates, attorneys, and any persons acting in concert or participation with them, including all known contact information, including any and all associated e-mail addresses;
- b. the nature of Defendant’s operations and all associated sales, methods of payment for services and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Defendant’s financial accounts, as well as providing a full accounting of Defendant’s sales and listing history; and
- c. any financial accounts owned or controlled by Defendant, including its agents, servants, employees, confederates, attorneys, and any persons acting in concert or participation with them, including such accounts residing with or under the control of any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, PayPal, AliPay, Payoneer, Skrill, Ping Pong, and Amazon Payments, or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA) connected to or used by any of the Defendant's accounts, including an accounting of the total funds therein and transactions of funds into and out from such financial accounts.
