SEALED

Civil Action No.
1:25-cv-6614-TWT

Temporary Restraining Order, Including a Temporary Injunction, A Temporary Asset Restraint, Expedited Discovery, and Order to Show Cause

THIS CAUSE being before the Court on Plaintiff Ex Parte Motions for Entry of a Temporary Restraining Order, Including a Temporary Injunction, a Temporary Asset Restraint, and Expedited Discovery (the “Motion”) against the defendants identified in the Complaint (the “Defendants”) and using at least the online marketplace accounts identified in Exhibit A hereto (the “Defendant Online Stores”), and this Court having heard the evidence before it hereby GRANTS Plaintiff’s Motion in its entirety.

This Court further finds that it has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants since the Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States. Specifically, Defendants are reaching out to do business with United States residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive Defendant Online Stores through which United States residents can purchase offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and, on information and belief, have sold products that infringe directly or indirectly Plaintiff's United States design patent D1,030,648.

This Court also finds that issuing this Order without notice pursuant to Rule 65(b)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure is appropriate because Plaintiff has presented specific facts in the Declaration of Shuwei He, and accompanying evidence clearly showing that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the movant before the adverse party can be heard in opposition.

Specifically, in the absence of an ex parte Order, Defendants could and likely would modify registration data and content and move any assets from accounts in U.S.-based financial institutions, including Amazon Pay accounts, to offshore accounts. Id. Proceedings against those who deliberately traffic in counterfeit merchandise are often useless if notice is given to the adverse party.

Accordingly, this Court orders that:

1. Defendants, their affiliates, officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, confederates, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them be temporarily enjoined and restrained from:

- a. further infringing U.S. design patent D1,030,648 and damaging Plaintiff's patent rights;
- b. manufacturing, importing, distributing, offering for sale, or selling the any knock-off and copycat products, (the "Infringing Products") into or within the United States and her territories;
- c. shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, the Infringing Products;
- d. manufacturing, shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured by or for Plaintiff, nor authorized by Plaintiff to be sold or offered for sale, and which infringe the '648 Patent;
- e. using, linking to, transferring, selling, exercising control over, or otherwise owning the Amazon.com Internet Store accounts or any other online marketplace account that is being used to sell or is the means by which Defendants could continue to sell the Infringing Products; and
- f. operating and/or hosting any website or marketplace account for or on behalf of Defendants that are involved with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of Infringing Products.

2. Defendants shall not transfer or dispose of any money or other of Defendants' assets in any of Defendants' financial accounts until further ordered by this Court.
3. Plaintiff is authorized to issue expedited written discovery to Defendants, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 33, 34, and 36, related to:
  - a. the identities and locations of Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including all known contact information and all associated e-mail addresses;
  - b. the nature of Defendants' operations and all associated sales, methods of payment for services, and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Defendant Online Stores and Defendants' financial accounts, including Defendants' sales and listing history related to their respective Defendant Online Stores; and
