FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
ATLANTA DIVISION

LOGARO LLC, Plaintiff,

v.

ANGGREK K-US, et al.,
Defendants.

Civil Action No.
1:25-cv-06492-SDG

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ORDER

THIS CAUSE being before the Court on Plaintiff’s request to convert the temporary restraining order into a preliminary injunction against the Defendants identified in Exhibit A, who are using the online marketplace accounts identified therein (the “Defendant Online Stores”), and this Court having heard the evidence before it, hereby GRANTS Plaintiff’s Motion.

The Court previously entered a temporary restraining order (TRO) against the Defendants on November 25, 2025 [ECF 18] and authorized Plaintiff to serve Defendants by electronic means [ECF 17]. In conjunction with the TRO, the Court ordered Defendants to appear at a hearing to show good cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue. That hearing went forward on January 23, 2026, at 3:00 p.m. EST.

Defendants were served with process and provided notice of the January 23, 2026 hearing. This Court, having reviewed Plaintiff’s motion, and declarations and evidence therewith and argument during the hearing, makes the following findings of facts and conclusions of law.

“Before granting a preliminary injunction, the district court must find that the plaintiff[] ha[s] established: (1) a substantial likelihood of success on the merits; (2) a substantial threat of irreparable injury if the injunction were not granted; (3) that the threatened injury to the plaintiffs outweighs the harm an injunction may cause the defendant; and (4) that granting the injunction would not disserve the public interest.” Church v. City of Huntsville, 30 F.3d 1332, 1342 (11th Cir. 1994). Plaintiff’s claims under 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114 and 1125(a) both “turn on the determination of whether defendants’ use of the mark [Let’s Color] is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception.” Amstar Corp. v. Domino’s Pizza, Inc., 615 F.2d 252, 258–59 (5th Cir. 1980).

A. Plaintiff’s Trademark

- 1) Plaintiff maintains exclusive control over the federally registered Let’s Color Trademark and has used it consistently without it being abandoned. Plaintiff is the exclusive owner of all of the genuine Let’s Color products which are sold, distributed, promoted, and advertised in connection with the Let’s Color Trademark. Plaintiff’s sole shareholder has been engaged in the design, distribution, marketing, offering for sale, and sale of ink pad products under the Let’s Color Trademark since 2016. In July 2023, Plaintiff's sole shareholder transferred his rights, title, and interest in the Let's Color Trademark, along with the associated goodwill and related business, to Plaintiff.

- 2) Plaintiff owns the federal trademark registration for the Let's Color Trademark, Reg. No. 7,461,048, that applies to Class 16 (Ink pads, Ink pads for seals).

B. Defendants' Advertising of Counterfeit and Infringing Goods.

- 3) Each Defendant is believed to be a non-U.S. entity, association, or individual, located in China or another foreign jurisdiction, each of whom offers for sale, distributes, and/or advertises goods through the e-commerce platform Amazon.com.
- 4) Defendants use trademarks identical to or substantially indistinguishable from the Let's Color Trademark in order to make, use, offer for sale, sell, and/or import into the United States for subsequent sale or use products which infringe directly and/or indirectly that bear the Let's Color Trademark ("Counterfeit Products").
- 5) Defendants have offered Counterfeit Products for sale throughout the United States, including in Georgia. Each Defendant is willing to engage in commercial transactions with residents of the United States and ship Counterfeit Products to the United States.

- 6) Defendants have structured their business to target the United States market by accepting payment from and agreeing to ship Counterfeit Products to residents of the United States.
- 7) Defendants are subject to the personal jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to Rule 4(k)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and exercising jurisdiction over Defendants is consistent with the United States Constitution and its laws. Based on the facts set forth above, it is reasonable for Defendants to expect that they may be sued in the United States. Sec. & Exch. Comm'n v. Carrillo, 115 F.3d 1540, 1542–47 (11th Cir. 1997) (holding that court had personal jurisdiction over foreign corporation where defendant placed ads for securities in two airlines' in-flight magazines, mailed offering materials directly to U.S. investors, and maintained U.S. bank accounts to receive payment from investors); Louis Vuitton Malletier, S.A. v. Mosseri, 736 F.3d 1339, 1355–58 (11th Cir. 2013) (affirming jurisdiction over non-resident who sold counterfeit products through fully-interactive website).
- 8) Plaintiff has not licensed or authorized Defendants to use the Let's Color Trademark, and Defendants are not authorized retailers or resellers of genuine Let's Color products.

- 9) To the extent third parties have previously used the Let's Color Trademark, Plaintiff has rights in the Let's Color Trademark that are superior to those of Defendants. Comm. for Idaho's High Desert, Inc. v. Yost, 92 F.3d 814, 820 (9th Cir. 1996) (“[A] third party’s prior use of a trademark is not a defense in an infringement action.”).
- 10) Plaintiff has established that the Counterfeit Products offered for sale by Defendants are not genuine and that each Defendant is using the Let's Color Trademark or a colorable imitation of the Let's Color Trademark on or in connection with the offer for sale, distribution, or advertising of Counterfeit Products.
- 11) Plaintiff has established that it is substantially likely to succeed on the merits of its trademark infringement claims:
 - a. Plaintiff owns a valid federal trademark registration for the Let's Color Trademark;
 - b. The Counterfeit Products that Defendants are advertising and offering for sale are not genuine;
 - c. Defendants are using spurious marks that are identical with, or substantially indistinguishable from, the Let's Color Trademark or colorable imitations of the Let's Color Trademark in commerce on or in connection with the offer for sale, distribution, and/or advertising of the Counterfeit Products;

- d. Defendants' use of the Let's Color Trademark or colorable imitations of the Let's Color Trademark is likely to cause consumer confusion, mistake, or deception as to the source or origin of the Counterfeit Products; and
- e. Alternatively and/or additionally, each Defendant is using in commerce a word, term, name, symbol, or device, or a combination thereof, or a false or misleading representation of fact on or in connection with its goods in a manner that is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive, as to the affiliation, connection, or association of each Defendant with Plaintiff, or as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of each Defendant's goods or commercial activities by Plaintiff.

- 12) Under 15 U.S.C. § 1116(a), Plaintiff is entitled to a rebuttable presumption of irreparable harm because Plaintiff is seeking a preliminary injunction and has demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits. Because Plaintiff has demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits, it is automatically entitled to a presumption of irreparable harm, thereby satisfying the second factor of the preliminary injunction analysis.

- 13) Even in the absence of the rebuttable presumption, Plaintiff has shown that it is likely to suffer irreparable harm if an injunction does not issue. The proliferation of counterfeit and/or infringing copies of Plaintiff's goods erodes the distinctiveness of the Let's Color Trademark and diminishes their value and associated goodwill. Because Plaintiff cannot control the quality of counterfeit and infringing goods, the sale of inferior counterfeit or infringing goods by Defendants will have a materially adverse effect on Plaintiff's business reputation and the goodwill associated with the Let's Color Trademark. This is sufficient to establish a likelihood of irreparable harm. Noorani Trading Inc. v. Bijani, 2017 WL 8292437, at *9 (N.D. Ga. May 4, 2017). The widespread and unauthorized use of the Let's Color Trademark in the marketing, offering for sale of counterfeit and/or infringing goods threatens the extensive goodwill associated with Plaintiff's business and the Let's Color Trademark, and will continue to cannibalize the sale of Plaintiff's genuine goods. There is a significant threat that Plaintiff will suffer irreparable harm without an injunction. MUD PIE, LLC v. Deck the Halls, Y'all, LLC, 2017 WL 8942387, at *3 (N.D. Ga.

Sept. 27, 2017); Ferrellgas Partners, L.P. v. Barrow, 143 F. App'x 180, 190 (11th Cir. 2005); Crossfit, Inc. v. Quinnie, 232 F. Supp. 3d 1295, 1316 (N.D. Ga. 2017) (“The most corrosive and irreparable harm attributable to trademark infringement is the inability of the victim to control the nature and quality of the defendants’ goods.”).

- 14) It is likely that Plaintiff will suffer immediate and irreparable loss, damage, or injury unless Plaintiff’s request for relief is granted:
 - a. It is likely that Defendants will continue to sell Counterfeit Products through their virtual storefronts in the absence of the requested preliminary injunction;
 - b. As a result, it is likely that consumers will continue to be misled, confused, and disappointed by the quality of these products, thereby significantly and irreparably damaging Plaintiff’s valuable goodwill; and
 - c. Plaintiff will continue to suffer lost sales of genuine products as the result of the lower-cost Counterfeit Products offered for sale by Defendants.

- 15) The balance of harms favors Plaintiff. If the Plaintiff’s request is denied, Plaintiff will continue to suffer the above-mentioned irreparable harm to its reputation and the goodwill associated with the

Let's Color Trademark. On the other hand, enjoining Defendants from selling counterfeit and/or infringing goods poses little to no risk of damaging the goodwill, if any, associated with the Defendants. Any harm Defendants may suffer is purely monetary and is therefore compensable, unlike the harm that Plaintiff will continue to suffer.

- 16) Granting Plaintiff a preliminary injunction is also in the public's interest. It will prevent consumer confusion in the marketplace and remove from the stream of commerce Counterfeit Products of unknown and likely inferior quality and composition, thereby preventing consumer harm, confusion, mistake, and deception.
- 17) Plaintiff has requested a permanent injunction and recovery of Defendants' ill-gotten profits from their sale of Counterfeit Products pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a).
- 18) By requesting equitable relief, Plaintiff has invoked this Court's inherent equitable powers to order preliminary relief, including an asset freeze, to assure the availability of permanent relief. Levi Strauss Co. v. Sunrise Intern. Trading, 51 F.3d 928, 987 (11th Cir. 1995).
- 19) Defendants are likely to destroy evidence of their counterfeiting activities, such as evidence regarding their virtual storefronts and payment processing histories on Amazon and other financial institutions, as well as hide and/or transfer any ill-gotten proceeds from the sale of Counterfeit Products, unless those assets are frozen or otherwise restrained.

ORDER

In light of the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Plaintiff's motion for entry of a preliminary injunction, including an asset restraint and expedited discovery, is GRANTED as follows:

- 1) Defendants (as reflected on the attached Exhibit A), their affiliates, officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, confederates, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under, or in active concert with them continue to be enjoined and restrained from:
 - a. using the Let's Color Trademark or any reproductions, counterfeit copies or colorable imitations thereof in any manner in connection with the distribution, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, or sale of any product that is not a genuine Let's Color product or not authorized by Plaintiff to be sold in connection with the Let's Color Trademark;
 - b. passing off, inducing, or enabling others to sell or pass off any product as a genuine Let's Color product or any other product produced by Plaintiff, that is not Plaintiff's or not produced under

- the authorization, control, or supervision of Plaintiff and approved by Plaintiff for sale under the Let's Color Trademark;
- c. committing any acts calculated to cause consumers to believe that Defendants' products are those sold under the authorization, control, or supervision of Plaintiff, or are sponsored by, approved by, or otherwise connected with Plaintiff;
 - d. further infringing the Let's Color Trademark and damaging Plaintiff's commercial goodwill;
 - e. otherwise competing unfairly with Plaintiff in any manner;
 - f. manufacturing, shipping, delivering, holding for sale, transferring or otherwise moving, storing, distributing, returning, or otherwise disposing of, in any manner, products or inventory not manufactured by or for Plaintiff, nor authorized by Plaintiff to be sold or offered for sale, and which bear any of Plaintiff's trademarks, including the Let's Color Trademark, or any reproductions, counterfeit copies, or colorable imitations thereof; and
 - g. using, linking to, transferring, selling, exercising control over, or otherwise owning or operating the infringing webstores, websites, or any other domain name that is being used to sell or is the means by which Defendants could continue to sell Counterfeit Products.

- 2) Defendants and any third party with actual notice of this Order who are providing services for any of the Defendants, or in connection with any of the Defendant Online Stores identified in Exhibit A or other online marketplace accounts operated by Defendants, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as Temu, Amazon, eBay, web hosts, sponsored search engine or ad-word providers, credit cards, banks, merchant account providers, third party processors and other payment processing service providers such as PayPal and Amazon Payments, and Internet search engines such as Google, Bing and Yahoo (collectively, the “Third-Party Providers”) shall, within seven days of receiving actual notice of this Order, provide to Plaintiff expedited discovery, including copies of all documents and records in such person’s or entity’s possession or control relating to:
 - a. the identities and locations of Defendants, their agents, servants, employees, confederates, attorneys, and any persons acting in concert or participation with them, including all known contact information, including any and all associated e-mail addresses;

- b. the nature of Defendants’ operations and all associated sales, methods of payment for services and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Defendant Online Stores and Defendants’ financial accounts, as well as providing a full accounting of Defendants’ sales and listing history related to their respective Defendant Online Stores;
 - c. any of the Defendant Online Stores;
 - d. any other online marketplace accounts registered by Defendants;

and
 - e. any financial accounts linked to or associated with each Defendant’s account associated with the Defendant Online Stores, or from or to which funds have been transferred from the attached accounts, including the name of the financial institution, account numbers, routing numbers, and other relevant data to allow Plaintiff to seek further application of this Order.
- 3) Upon Plaintiff’s request, those in privity with Defendants and those with notice of the injunction, including the Third-Party Providers as defined in Paragraph 2, shall within seven days of receiving actual notice of this Order:

- a. disable and cease providing services being used by Defendants, currently or in the future, to engage in the sale of goods using the Let's Color Trademark including the products identified in Exhibit A;
 - b. disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defendants in connection with the sale of counterfeit and infringing goods using the Let's Color Trademark; and
 - c. take all steps necessary to prevent links to the Defendant Online Stores' product listings identified in Exhibit A from displaying in search results, including, but not limited to, removing the links from any search index.
- 4) Defendants and any persons in active concert or participation with them who have actual notice of this Order shall continue to be restrained and enjoined from transferring or disposing of any money earned by each Defendant from its sales of any of the products identified in Exhibit A ("Accused Revenue") until further ordered by this Court. However, to the extent the instructions in this Paragraph 4 conflict with the Agreed Asset Restraint Order entered December 22, 2025 [ECF 36], the requirements of the Agreed Asset Restraint Order shall be followed.

- 5) Any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors, or other financial institutions shall, within two (2) business days of receipt of this Order, for any Defendant or any of the Defendant Online Stores:
- a. locate all accounts and funds connected to Defendants or the Defendant Online Stores, including, but not limited to, any PayPal or Amazon Payment accounts connected to any e-mail addresses provided for Defendants by third parties; and
 - b. restrain and enjoin, up to the amount of Accused Revenue, any such accounts or funds from being transferred or disposed of until further ordered by this Court.
 - c. However, to the extent the instructions in this Paragraph 5 conflict with the Agreed Asset Restraint Order, the requirements of the Agreed Asset Restraint Order shall be followed.
- 6) Pursuant to this Court's discretion, Plaintiff shall not presently be required to post a bond or other security. BellSouth Telecomms., Inc. v. MCIMetro Access Transmission Servs., LLC, 425 F.3d 964, 971 (11th Cir. 2005). However, any Defendant may appear and immediately challenge this portion of the Order by providing the Court with a reasonable estimation of its potential lost sales, along with supporting documentation sufficient to allow the Court to decide what an appropriate amount of surety would be. Plaintiff will then have two (2) weeks in which to file a response.

- 7) Any Defendant or Third-Party Providers may petition the Court to modify the asset restraint set out in this Order.
- 8) The Court's TRO [ECF 18] is dissolved as to the Defendants and is replaced by this preliminary injunction order which is hereafter in effect.

SO ORDERED this 12th day of February, 2026.
