This little MHFOOU Halloween pumpkin hideout is adorable in the tank. The size is perfect for small fish or shrimp to explore, and the details look great under aquarium lighting. It's got that classic Halloween vibe without being over the top, and the resin feels smooth and safe for the fish. I rinsed it before adding it in and had no issues with cloudiness or color leaching. It sits flat and doesn't tip over easily, which is a plus. A fun, festive accent that adds a bit of spooky charm to the aquarium — definitely one I'll pull out every October.

Added this little pumpkin to our fish tank for our betta fish, Frank the Feathered Fish. It's the perfect festive touch! It's not large—just big enough for a smaller tank, which makes it ideal if you don't want to overcrowd the space. Frank seems to love swimming around it, and it adds a cute seasonal vibe to the aquarium.
