

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
ATLANTA DIVISION

YUN LIU,

Plaintiff,

v.

BAG-A-LICIOUS, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:26-cv-04315-MHC

Order on Expedited Discovery

THIS CAUSE being before the Court on Plaintiff's Ex Parte Motion for Expedited Discovery (the "Motion") against the Defendants identified in the Complaint (collectively, "Defendants") and using at least the online marketplace accounts identified in Exhibit A hereto (the "Defendant Online Store"), and this Court having heard the evidence before it hereby GRANTS Plaintiff's Motion.

This Court further finds that it has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants since the Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States. Specifically, Defendants are reaching out to do business with United States residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive Defendant Online Stores through which United States residents can purchase offer shipping to the United States, including Georgia, and, on information and belief, have sold products that infringe directly or indirectly Plaintiff's United States Patent No. 12,502,018 (the '018 Patent").

Accordingly, this Court orders that:

1. Upon Plaintiff's request, any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing services for any of the Defendants, or in connection with any of Defendant Online Stores, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as eBay, Inc., AliExpress, Alibaba, Amazon.com, Inc., Wish.com, and Dhgate (collectively, the "Third Party Providers"), shall, within five (5) business days after receipt of such notice, provide to Plaintiff expedited discovery, limited to copies of documents and records in such person's or entity's possession or control sufficient to determine:
 - a. the identities and locations of Defendants listed on Exhibit A attached hereto, their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including all known contact information and all associated e-mail addresses;
 - b. the identities of and all contact information, including any email addresses related to Defendants listed on Exhibit A and any entities having any ownership or control over the marketplace stores operated by said Defendants;

- c. the nature of Defendants' operations and all associated sales, methods of payment for services, and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Defendant Online Stores and Defendants' financial accounts, including Defendants' sales and listing history related to their respective Defendant Online Stores;
- d. any marketplace accounts owned, operated, or controlled by said Defendants and their officers, affiliates, agents, and/or employees; and any marketplace accounts owned, operated, or controlled by said Defendants and their officers, affiliates, agents, and/or employees.
- e. records of the sales of Defendants' Infringing Products, as identified by their respective ASINs or Item IDs as set forth in Exhibit A, and
- f. any financial accounts owned or controlled by Defendants, including their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any persons acting in active concert or participation with them, including such accounts residing with or under the control of any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, PayPal, Alipay, Wish.com, Alibaba, Ant Financial, Amazon Pay, or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA).

IT IS SO ORDERED this 5th day of August, 2026.

District Judge Mark H. Cohen
