v.

BAMBOOHART, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:26-cv-03620-JPB

Memorandum of Law in Support of Plaintiff's Ex Parte Motion for Expedited Discovery

NOW COMES Logaro LLC ("Plaintiff"), by and through its undersigned counsel and hereby submits this Memorandum in support of its Ex Parte Motion for expedited discovery to the Defendants identified in the Complaint (collectively, "Defendants").

I. Background

a. Plaintiff's Business

Plaintiff specializes in the production, marketing, and sale of ink pad products which are sold in connection with the internationally recognizable federally registered Crystal3 Trademark. Plaintiff is the exclusive owner of all of the Genuine Crystal3 Products that are sold, distributed, promoted, and advertised in connection with the Crystal3 Trademark. Plaintiff maintains exclusive control over the valid Crystal3 Trademark and has used it consistently without it ever being abandoned. See Declaration of Yirong Zhou at ¶ 3. Plaintiff has invested substantial resources, time, money, and commercial effort in order to establish the goodwill of Genuine Crystal3 Products and the Crystal3 brand. Id. at ¶ 5. The Crystal3 Trademark is indispensable to Plaintiff's business operations and Plaintiff maintains all lawful rights of title and interest in the mark to enforce and protect its Crystal3 brand. Id. at ¶6.

b. Defendants' Unlawful Activities

Plaintiff has discovered numerous fully interactive ecommerce stores, including those operated by Defendants which have been offering for sale and selling Counterfeit Products using the Crystal3 Trademark to customers throughout the United States. Id. at ¶ 7. Plaintiff's well-pleaded allegations regarding registration patterns, similarities among the storefronts operating under the Seller Aliases and the Counterfeit Products for sale thereon, and common tactics employed to evade enforcement efforts establish a logical relationship among the Defendants and that Defendants are interrelated. If Defendants elect to provide additional information regarding their identities or information related to their business enterprise based on trademark infringement, Plaintiff will appropriately amend its Complaint as necessary.

II. Argument

As set forth in the Complaint, this Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of, inter alia, the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et seq., 28 U.S.C. §§ 1338(a)-(b), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391.

The Court has “broad discretion” in the scheduling of discovery. Johnson v. Bd. of Regents, 263 F.3d 1234, 1269 (11th Cir. 2001); Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2).

The Court this can allow for expedited discovery where a party shows “good cause” for such discovery. FieldTurf USA, Inc. v. Polyloom Corporation of America, 2024 WL 4868292, at *4 (N.D. Ga. July 31, 2024). Moreover, courts have broad power over discovery and may permit discovery in order to aid in the identification of unknown defendants. See, Gillespie v. Civiletti, 629 F.2d 637, 642 (9th Cir. 1980); See also, Guest v. Leis, 255 F.3d 325, 336 (6th Cir. 2001) (“computer users do not have a legitimate expectation of privacy in their subscriber information because they have conveyed it to another person - the system operator”).

Defendants have done to lengths to obfuscate the scope of its operations including, without limitation, by omitting useable and/or verifiable identity information from the storefronts operating under the Seller Aliases. Zhou Decl. Ex. 2-5. Plaintiff respectfully requests expedited discovery concerning the true identity of Defendants and the scope of Defendants’ sales of Counterfeit Products in addition to bank and payment system accounts which Defendants use for their illegitimate sales operations. Plaintiff requires this information to both serve Defendants with process and to fully identify Defendants and to determine the profits derived by Defendants through the use, sale, and exploitation of the Crystal3 Trademark to help protect Plaintiff's right to an accounting of profits. See, e.g., Deckers Outdoor Corp. v. The P'ships, et al., No. 15-cv-3249 (N.D. Ill. April 21, 2015) (Dkt. 19) (unpublished).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant the following relief:

A. That the Court enter an order granting Plaintiff expedited discovery in the form submitted herewith.

Dated: August 21, 2026

Case No. 1:26-cv-03620-JPB

[proposed] Order on Expedited Discovery

THIS CAUSE being before the Court on Plaintiff’s Ex Parte Motion for Expedited Discovery (the “Motion”) against the Defendants identified in the Complaint (collectively, “Defendants”) and using at least the online marketplace accounts identified in Exhibit A hereto (the “Defendant Online Store”), and this Court having heard the evidence before it hereby GRANTS Plaintiff’s Motion.

This Court further finds that it has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants since the Defendants directly target their business activities toward consumers in the United States. Specifically, Defendants are reaching out to do business with United States residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive Defendant Online Stores through which United States residents can purchase products using counterfeit versions of the Crystal3 trademark:

Reg. No.	Trademark	Goods / Services
7,461,035		CLASS 16: Ink pads; Ink pads for seals

Thus, this Court orders that:

1. Defendants and any third party with actual notice of this Order who is providing e-commerce platform or payment processing services for Defendants, or in connection with the Defendant Online Stores or other online marketplace accounts operated by Defendants, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as Amazon, eBay, web hosts, sponsored search engine or ad-word providers, credit cards, banks, merchant account providers, third party processors and other payment processing service providers such as PayPal and Amazon Payments, and Internet search engines such as Google, Bing and Yahoo (collectively, the “Third-Party Providers”) shall, within five (5) business days after receipt of such notice, provide to Plaintiff expedited discovery, including copies of all documents and records in such person’s or entity’s possession or control relating to:
 - a. the identities and locations of Defendants, its agents, servants, employees, confederates, attorneys, and any persons acting in concert or

- participation with them, including all known contact information, including any and all associated e-mail addresses;
- b. all associated sales, methods of payment for services and financial information, including, without limitation, identifying information associated with the Defendant Online Stores and Defendants' financial accounts, as well as providing a full accounting of Defendants' sales of any of the items identified in Schedule A ("Accused Products");
 - c. any other online marketplace accounts registered by Defendants; and
 - d. any financial accounts owned or controlled by Defendants, including such accounts residing with or under the control of any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, PayPal and Walmart, or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and VISA).
